Teachers have the power to discipline pupils for misbehaving outside of the school premises “to such an extent as is reasonable” Section 90 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006

At Nether Stowe School teachers may discipline pupils for:

- Misbehaviour when the pupil is:
 - taking part in any school-organised or school-related activity
 - travelling to or from school
 - wearing school uniform
 - in some other way identifiable as a pupil at the school
- misbehaviour at any time, whether or not the conditions above apply, that:
 - could have repercussions for the orderly running of the school
 - poses a threat to another pupil or member of the public
 - could adversely affect the reputation of the school.

In all cases of misbehaviour the teacher can only discipline on school premises or elsewhere when the pupil is under the lawful control of the staff member.
